Explore One of Readington's Finest Open Spaces!

In the Cole Rd Greenway, located in the center of our township, miles of enjoyable recreational trails wind over mostly level ground on hundreds of acres of preserved lands. The interconnected and publicly accessible open fields and woodlands lie on both sides of Cole Road. We will walk two to three miles over various types of habitat in the section west of the road. Trail map and directions are at http://readingtontwp.org/trails/Map_Directions.pdf,
